

ANOTHER HOLD UP

Frank McBride Brutally Assaulted in Salt Lake.

His Brother Over the Head With a Revolver, Stabbed in the Leg, and Robbed of His Jewelry and Money.

SALT LAKE, July 14.—The Liberal councilmen were at the convention to-night, and as there was not a quorum present, no meeting of the council could be held.

Frank McBride, a well-known real estate agent, and son of Judge McBride, was held up on Commercial street, at an early hour this morning by two men. He was robbed of his watch and jewelry, and his brother, who was with him, was over the head with a revolver, stabbed in the leg, and robbed of his jewelry and money.

A special from Arizona, dated July 14, says that a party of Indians in the southern part of the state and that a massacre is expected.

U. S. Congressman Horr addressed a large audience at the theatre to-night. The Liberal county convention was held here to-day. After a permanent organization had been selected, a series of resolutions of the Liberal party were introduced and adopted.

Division on national party lines is pronounced, and a bid is made for the future. A. L. Williams, the Liberal candidate for collector, Prof. Callahan for superintendent of schools, Harvey Hardy and John Butters for selectmen. The nominees for the Council were James Allen, George J. Scott's partner, R. N. Baskin and P. J. Moran. The latter is a plumber and was nominated simply to catch the Liberal vote. Nominees for the House are J. A. Marshall, Jack Morris, W. E. Colton, Frank Pierce, H. W. Lawrence, W. H. Irvine. Irvine has stated that he would be a candidate for the House, and when his name was presented, a demonstration broke loose. To the surprise of all, Powers came forward and, in a long speech, declined the nomination, because the name was presented by a committee. The convention adjourned at midnight.

TINPLATE FACTORIES.

Result of the Closing in Wales—America.

LONDON, July 14.—The closing of the great Welsh tinplate factories made a deep impression here. Out of eighty about two-thirds suspended, but on trustworthy information it is believed the closing was the result of a joint agreement. So much tinplate has been run off since the operating of the McKinnon law that the tinplate industry was threatened, and the present movement is an effort to relieve the market so as to raise the price.

This and the disastrous result of raising prices to a point that induced Americans to build their own factories. On the first of next month the owners will decide whether the factories will be opened or not. Many are in favor of flooding the American market and keeping prices so low as to discourage the home efforts at manufacturing.

Several manufacturers have sent agents to the region of Alabama to investigate the advisability of putting up plate-tin works there. Thirty thousand Welshmen are thrown out of work and are eagerly awaiting the results.

To Investigate the Seal Fisheries.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Acting Secretary Wharton, of the department of commerce, has sent instructions to Prof. S. Mendenhall and Dr. J. H. Henshaw, the expert agents appointed to go to Alaska, to learn all the facts respecting the seal fisheries. These instructions are to obtain all possible information upon the subject of breeding places, effects of pelagic sealing, disposition of the number of seals per flock, of demerit, and in the event that these seals are required necessary, and proper months to be included in such seasons.

Washington, July 14.—The Mexican man of war, "Demeter," in this harbor has received a dispatch from the Mexican navy department to the effect that a naval engagement took place off the Chilean coast two days ago between the insurgent cruiser Magallanes and several government vessels. The engagement resulted in a decisive victory for the insurgents, and two government vessels were almost destroyed.

The Wild Reports Abroad.

St. Paul, July 14.—According to the Indian agent, B. P. Schuber, of White Earth reservation, the wild reports of trouble up there is absurd. The Government removed the dance house in order to remove any possible source of trouble, and Indians say that they are doing anything that will please the great father at Washington.

Successful Tests in Armor Plate.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Further tests with the American armor plate made at Annapolis are proving the ground laid Saturday, with gratifying results. By firing with surfaces treated by the new Harvey process, to give the process a complete test, under better conditions than theretofore realized, the plates were made with less carbon in their composition than three plates tested some months ago. The official report has not yet been received, but the officers present say the plates satisfactorily resisted the fire from a six-pound Hotchkiss rifle, a severe test.

Fatal Gas Explosion.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 14.—A gas tank, containing 20,000 feet of gas, exploded at midnight, killing two people.

Wool Quotations.

PHILADELPHIA, July 14.—Wool is steady; Montana fine, 19¢; Territory fine, 16¢.

CHICAGO, July 14.—Wool weak; domestic fleece, 30¢; 37.

Boston, July 14.—Wool steady; California selling principally on a secured basis of 60 cents for fine 1.

The Estate of William Windom.

WINONA, Minn., July 14.—The appraisal of the estate of the late William Windom, was filed to-day. It shows the total value of the estate to be $199,700.

New Land Bill Passed.

LONDON, July 14.—The House of Lords has today passed the bill passed by the House of Commons, which provides for the sale of the land of the Crown, and the bill is now in the hands of the king for his signature.

Working Without Pay.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Julius Cronin, of Nebraska, who succeeded Grover. Hatchery, of New York, as assistant secretary of the treasury, will receive no pay for his services unless the Senate confirms the appointment. This is in accordance with the opinion of the attorney-general, that any person appointed during the recess of Congress to any office which was vacant when the body was in session is not entitled to any compensation until after the confirmation.

OHIO CONVENTION.

Gov. Campbell to Be Bitterly Opposed.

He Thinks He Will Be Re-Nominated Unanimously But He is Likely to Be Opposed by the Neal Men.

CLEVELAND, July 14.—Gov. Campbell will be the nominee of the Democratic Convention to-morrow for governor of Ohio. The contest will be short and decisive, and will be concluded with the first ballot. Governor Campbell will receive far more than enough votes to nominate him, but the anti-Campbell delegates insist that they will go on record in opposition, in order to prevent his unanimous nomination.

Thus, so far as the convention is concerned, harmony is deliberately rejected as an unnecessary political expedient, and the only question now is will anti-Campbell factions carry their aversion to the 14th? There have been many warring factions in the Ohio Democratic party, but never as many as to-day. Between Campbell and Neal, and in several cases disputes event such an extent that the governor answered with the threat of the Hamilton county delegates, by declaring Campbell could be both nominated and elected without the help of Cincinnati. All these disputes are provoked by both Campbell and Neal, and their effect is now the less left in the party ranks.

While an angry struggle was in progress this evening in the town of Plain Dealer, office, between Neal and Nolan, a Campbell man, and an anti-Campbell prize fighter, and William and James Patterson, Neal delegates, understood to be from Cincinnati, a lie was passed and in an instant the two were drawn. A lively fusillade followed in which four or five shots were fired with wild results. An innocent bystander received one of the bullets, after which the weapons were used as clubs with more appreciable effect on the contestants. They all received numerous bruises over the head, and were bleeding profusely when arrested. This unfortunate incident tended at once to restore more philosophy to the contestants. They all received a feeling all around. Party leaders of all factions immediately went in a vigorous protest against wrangles, and to-night party disputes are discouraged by all, and a strong attempt made to restore partial harmony.

The full strength of the Campbell following was not appreciated until the Governor reached the city this afternoon.

"There is no doubt of my nomination on the first ballot," said he this evening, to an Associated Press representative. "It is a simple question of votes, as I already have assurances from far more than enough delegates to insure the nomination. I think I could easily carry the state, and I have accepted philosophically by all my worthy competitors, and that the Democracy of the State will present an unbroken front to the enemy this fall."

A mass meeting of Anti-Campbell delegates was held this afternoon, at which was discussed the question whether in the event of Campbell's nomination, the opposition should permit him to be declared the unanimous nominee, or insist on a Campbell roll call and make the record show opposing votes. The committee reported this evening in favor of opposing Campbell to the bitter end. This persistent opposition is the result of a long town to-night, and has destroyed the last hope of a harmonious convention.

The convention has been in session all evening, and the platform is practically completed, except on the silver question. The tariff plank is founded on that of last year. It demands a reduction of tariff taxes, and denounces the "so-called protective tariff," etc. The platform pledges the Ohio Democrats will aid in every way in the effort to make a suitable exhibit at the World's Fair. It is possible, a plank favoring free silver, will be adopted, but if so a minority report will be presented opposing it.

A Drunken Man's Spree.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 14.—A special to the Tribune from Tacoma says: Thomas Hinckley, of Seattle, while on a spree here, entered the saloon and called all hands up for a drink. While the saloon was being cleared, Hinckley pulled a revolver and began shooting. Wm. Brannon, proprietor, and George Martin, tax collector, a plank wounded. Hinckley and a man named Douglas, his companion, were both arrested.

An Ogle Thief Arrested.

KANSAS CITY, July 14.—A special from Wichita says: Nelson George, formerly the clerk of the registered herd department at Oglethorpe, Ga., has been arrested on a grand jury indictment for stealing a registered package containing $5,000. George stole the package from the Oglethorpe office, and re-addressed it to Kansas City, and called for it at the latter place himself.

Two Tenement Houses Burned Down.

NEW YORK, July 15.—About 1 o'clock this morning a fire totally destroyed two tenement houses on State street. The buildings were four stories in height, and were occupied by sixteen families. Many persons jumped from the ground in their night clothes, and four men were seriously injured. One child is missing and supposed to have perished.

Presidential Possibilities.

CHICAGO, July 14.—The Daily News will say to-morrow: There is a well formulated plan here to present the name of Chief-Justice Fuller for the presidency. The News article argues that Hill and Gray may destroy Cleveland, but if so the choice will fall to a man other than either the New York or Indiana executives.

Got the Leader of the Gang.

CHICAGO, July 14.—Tom Finn, aged 18, the leader of a gang of juvenile burglars, was shot and mortally wounded by a policeman this morning. The officer had been looking for him, and he had been hiding in a room several shots at him without effect. The policeman returned the fire, bringing down Finn.

Guilty of Criminal Negligence.

ARIZONA, July 14.—The inquest on the bodies of the victims of Sunday's wreck was held to-day. The jury found the conductor and brakeman of the extra train guilty of criminal negligence, and censured the Midland railway for having the buildings in the "Y" obstructed by the view.

Killed by Lightning.

KANSAS CITY, July 14.—Specials to the Times from various points in central and western Missouri report disastrous storms last night, near Somalia. John Dillard's house was struck by lightning, Dillard being instantly killed and his wife fatally injured.

Acquitted on Ground of Insanity.

LONDON, July 14.—The trial of Duncan for a murderous assault on his wife in Wales, took place to-day. Duncan was acquitted on the ground of insanity, and the court ordered him detained in custody.

Damaging Cloud-Burst.

CLINTON, Mo., July 14.—A cloud burst here last night, which caused great damage to crops, and washing out several hundred feet of railroad track.

Mr. Vernon Elected.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 14.—A special from Mt. Vernon, Wash., says: The principal business portion of this town has been destroyed by fire. Loss is about $50,000.

Southern Pacific Safe Destroyed.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 14.—Southern Pacific officials here denied all knowledge to-day of the alleged side of the Southern Pacific railroad in the Standard Oil magnates.

DOWN THE LIE.

The Payson Commendation in Last Night's Enquirer.

It is Denounced in the Mog. (Mog.) Language for Men Who Talked the Primacy.

The Enquirer last night contained the following communication:

"PAYSON, July 14.—Last night the Democrats of this city met in caucus and appointed delegates to attend the Twelfth Representative district convention, which is to be held in Spanish Fork to-morrow. There were twenty-two present at this important meeting, notwithstanding the fact that the city of Payson is Democratic (?). These sons of Democracy declined to instruct their delegates to place in nomination as candidate for the lower House, J. D. Irvine, with instructions that he work for the division of Utah county with Payson as county seat for the new county."

Immediately upon the publication of the above, people could "smell a rat" somewhere, and a DISPATCH reporter immediately struck out to see if there was any truth in the latter part of the communication relating to the division of the county. Leading Democrats were asked if they thought there were any grounds for such action as that reported above, and every one replied was most emphatically NO.

Steps were then taken to find out from Payson, and in answer to a special message sent the Democratic club there, the following was received:

EDITOR DISPATCH:—The report published in the Enquirer to-night, to the effect that in the event of the election of Mr. J. D. Irvine to the Legislature, that he will work for a division of Utah county, with the county seat at Payson, is a lie, pure and simple. No such instructions were ever given. In fact, so far as I am concerned, I have never thought of such a thing. We instructed our delegates to nominate Mr. J. D. Irvine for the legislature, but we never instructed him in the least to work for a division of the county and to believe such a thing possible. Whoever sent the Enquirer the report (if any one did) is a LIAR, and either President Harper or myself is ready to meet him any time and at any place he wants to and hear the falsehood into his teeth.

A. S. HODGES.

Secretary Payson Democratic Club.

What has the Enquirer got to say to this?

A Large Tide of Logs.

NEW YORK, July 14.—A large raft of logs, four-fifths of a mile long, containing 35,000,000 feet of lumber, and which is headed by St. John, N. B., June 28th, has arrived here.

Banker Hooper Dead.

REKORTS, Ia., July 14.—A Hooper, a retired banker and for many years a prominent citizen of this city, died to-day, aged 73.

He Wants Protection.

LONDON, July 14.—The Home correspondent of the London edition of the New York Herald, telegraphs his paper that it is rumored the local authorities of Cotonia, a city of Sicily, have violated the U. S. Consulate there, and that the Consul has asked the officials at Washington for a permit to close his office and place his archives under the protection of the German garrison.

From Tuesday's Daily.

SHERIFF FOWLER received a telegram from P. V. Junction last night, telling him to come there on next train, and signed by a man named Homeran. The sheriff immediately telegraphed to find out who Homeran was, and he received the following: "I'm a sheep man, and want you to arrest the constable here, so he waited here, as they will undoubtedly be the usual amount of trouble with the circus."

AN AWFUL AFFAIR.

Little Children Butchered by Robbers.

They Refuse to Disclose to the Friends Where Their Father's Money is Deposited and They are Murdered.

JOHNSA, Tex., July 14.—This morning at an early hour, two men went to the home of George Newberry, who is living two miles west of here. Newberry was absent, and the men demanded from his mother the money they supposed he had received a few days previously. The old lady told them she had no money in the house, whereupon they took her in the yard, tied her to the gatepost, and slashed her throat with a knife. She then went back into the house, seized the child of seven years, and asked her where her father's money was. The child refused to tell him, whereupon the ruffian took her out into the yard and cut her throat with a knife. Going back he took out the five-year-old girl and two-year-old baby boy, killed both in the same manner, and then fled with the bodies. The old lady is still living, but cannot recover. The officers are scouring the country for the murderers.

Destitution in Germany.

BERLIN, July 14.—The Vossische Zeitung says: Destitution among the lower classes of Germany is becoming intense. Potatoes, the usual price of which is 12 marks per bushel, now cost 8 marks per bushel. Bread is becoming dearer every week. Every branch of commerce is suffering and many bankruptcies are announced.

ANOTHER OLIVER TWIST.

Remarkable Story Told by a Little Wheeling Boy.

PITTSBURGH, July 12.—Charlie Snowden, an eight-year-old lad, was locked up by the Pittsburg police late last night. To-day, before being handed over to the humane society, until the Wheeling officials can be consulted, he told a surprising story.

"I live at Wheeling," he began. "My father is a bad man; his name is 'Old' Snowden, and he is a leader of a lot of men who do nothing but break in houses and steal. He used to make me help him. I had to crawl in windows and open doors. When I refused to help him, he beat me. One day I got away and took a train and came to Pittsburg. My father and another man killed a man down in West Virginia. I was living in bed with them before, and I know it. They said that they would do it if the old man woke up. The next day I heard about an old man being killed at the place they were talking about. I knew it was my father who killed him. I got away as soon as I could." Inspector McKeown said that the boy is intelligent and has a convincing manner.

GOSHEN NEWS.

The Iron Horse Will Soon Be Shortening Its Way Through There.

We came! we spoke! and we conquered! This applies to Democracy and Goshen.

Goshen is jubilant; the iron horse will soon be snorting and puffing through its quiet thoroughfares, laden with the precious minerals which nature has stored up in her treasure house in the western mountains, and in order to celebrate the event in becoming style, the citizens have ordered a set of brass instruments, which will be played on the Sabbath evening was broken, not only by the blowing of the horn as she vend her way from the pasture where she had been browsing on the succulent thistle and the fragrant sagebrush, but now and then a loud blast from the trumpet, which would forebode the ravishing strains of Strauss and Beethoven with which the air of Goshen will tingle. (Copyrighted.)

I am here in our enterprising townsmen, N. Johnson's, camp. He has a contract here for grading, and is busy with a crew of men and teams, preparing the work. It is expected there will be running of traffic inside of six months. Success! Speed the good work!

This is a glorious season for the tramp. Six of the gentry procured beds on the second floor of the camp's hay stack last night, and the morning breeze was laden with the aroma of true Mocha bed in old wash basin and served out in some castaway fruit cans. From the Spartan simplicity of their fare, your correspondent was in hopes that they were Democrats, but on interviewing them I found out that they all to a man were in favor of protection—from work—and "high wages, and that they looked with lofty contempt on the men who work in the camp for a dollar and a half and their board."

CANT JOHNSON, Goshen, July 13, 1891.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the estate of James W. Loveless, deceased, the court made an order confirming sale of real estate and personal property.

In the matter of the estate of Elizabeth Roach, deceased, for hearing the application for approval of final account of administration and recitation of distribution. Mary A. Brattwaite failed to appear to establish her heirship to said estate. King & Huntz filed petition praying that the whole of said estate be sold to the Territory of Utah. J. W. Whittecon filed petition in behalf of Wm. Roach et al., asking that said estate be distributed to them, they claiming to be the heirs of said estate. J. H. Harris, attorney for Margaret and David Stringer, called attention to certain claims against said estate, filed herein, on which no claim had been taken. The court stated he would give evidence in support of said claims. Objections were filed by attorneys Whitecon and King & Huntz, to the sale of said estate, and the court allowed the claim of Margaret Stringer for $75, the total of said claim being $150, and rejected all other claims. The court further ordered a continuance in the hearing of final account and distribution till August 28, 1891.

In the matter of the estate of Thomas J. Jarnan, deceased, the petition of Thomas J. Jarnan and J. E. Booth, filed herein for letters of administration of said estate, was by order of this court set for hearing July 25, 1891.

ROSSELL C. HERR.

Republicanism Preached at the Theatre Last Night.

The Political Humorist From Michigan Amuses a Jolly Crowd of People for a Couple of Hours.

From Tuesday's Daily.

About 8:30 o'clock the Opera House party did not appear on the streets headed by a boy bearing a banner, calling attention to the fact that ex-Congressman Horst would talk Republicanism at the Opera House. Accordingly a large audience of ladies and gentlemen filled the house. When the curtain rolled up it disclosed to the gentlemen on the stage a good audience, and to the audience a well-arranged stage, with the American flag in the background. Seated on the stage were a number of prominent ladies and gentlemen of Provo and Judge Zane of Salt Lake, and R. C. Herr.

On motion of Mayor Booth the name of John A. Blackburn was presented as chairman.

Judge Blackburn, as second the chair and then introduced Mr. Herr, who said:

Ladies and Gentlemen: I am going to talk to you on the principles of the two great parties, and I am going to discuss them from the standpoint of a Republican. I have been a Republican ever since the party was formed, and I do not allow any man to tell me the principles of any party, because I have studied them too well. The Republicans have detested the government whenever it has assisted in putting down the rebellion, notwithstanding the fact that at this late day, Democrats tell you that it was them that fought the civil war. It is true there was a large number of Democrats who fought for the Union, but there was ever so many who stayed at home. A large number of individual Democrats went into the war, but they did not believe in the Union, and I like to belong to the Republican party because they have always stood by the old flag. And now about the question of tariff. There is nothing made by misrepresenting anything, and I will not misrepresent this question. There is no country in the world which practices absolute free trade. England is not a free trade country, as she has a tariff revenue. She levies duties on the things she does not produce, and this is just the opposite from the policy of the Republican party. As they place these things on the free list. The Democrats say that a protective tariff puts the money in the hands of the monopolist and the rich manufacturer at the expense of the consumer. I say that by putting the tariff on things that we manufacture we lower the price. We have had a protective tariff for thirty years, and I know that things are cheaper now than they were then. The speaker claimed that such was the case. He then listed, thirty years ago, and from the time the tariff was put on salt the price started to go down, and it is now cheaper than it ever was. Hardware had as increased in price in the western part of the country. The tariff had been placed on it. Nails, steel rails, silk goods, crockery, cotton goods, and wool had a tariff placed on them, and they had become cheaper by it. Grover Cleveland, in his message, recommended wool to be placed on the free list, and since that message was sent the price of wool has gone up. The speaker then said that the Democrats could not be manufactured in this country, but we are now manufacturing better linen than any other country. The same with glass. I have no use for a man who will not help to build up the town he is living in. After our town, our greatest industry is glass. Every man who has a piece of glass in his house, or a piece of glass in his window, is helping to build up the town he is living in. After our town, our greatest industry is glass. Every man who has a piece of glass in his house, or a piece of glass in his window, is helping to build up the town he is living in.
